GLOBAL MARKETS

Global Market Update

Stock futures are near flat Thursday night as investors looked ahead to the second in a pair of closely watched inflation reports this week. Futures tied to the Dow Jones Industrial Average lost 18 points, or 0.1%. S&P 500 futures and Nasdaq 100 futures were also both down around 0.1%. The moves follow a muted day on Wall Street. The 30-stock Dow inched up by around 15 points, while the S&P 500 finished marginally lower. The technology-heavy Nasdaq Composite closed at its flat line. Investors focused on inflation data released Thursday morning. December's consumer price index came in modestly hotter than economists forecasted, with prices up 0.3% on the month and 3.4% from a year ago.

Crude Oil

Oil prices rose nearly 1% on Thursday after Iran seized an oil tanker off the coast of Oman, raising the prospect of escalating conflict in the Middle East. The West Texas Intermediate futures contract for February rose 65 cents, or .91%, to settle at $72.02 a barrel. The Brent futures contract for March gained 61 cents, or .79%, to settle at $77.41 a barrel. Earlier in the session, both benchmarks were up over $2 a barrel but have pulled back on an unexpected increase in U.S. inflation and reports that China was seeking less Saudi imports. Iran seized a tanker with Iraqi crude destined for Turkey in retaliation for the confiscation last year of the same vessel and its oil by the U.S.

Gift Nifty

The GIFT Nifty indicates a marginally positive start for the broader index with a gain of 21 points. GIFT Nifty futures stood at 21,715 points after making a high of 21,763 points.
